It's so easy to turn a door into a warm and welcoming focal point of your home.

By creatively combining the essential elements of colour, light and the subtleties of shape and shade, decorative glass panels can transform any entrance way into an artistic statement of elegance and style.

This brochure has been produced to provide some ideas, plus maybe the inspiration you're seeking in order to transform your own doorways.

All the photographs featured in this brochure utilise standard components from our range of products.

Our window panel designers and decorative glazing artists can re-create any of the examples illustrated in this brochure.

Using our extensive range of standard components they can also develop your own ideas or create totally original decorative glazing concepts to suit your individual requirements and endow your home with a unique entrance feature.

Why not talk to us now ... and let's explore all the exciting possibilities.
